

THE DILLETT COMPANY, INC. PRIVACY STATEMENT

Your privacy is important to us.

The Dillett Company, Inc. is committed to providing you with selected insurance products and investments backed by our caring and timely service. While information is fundamental to our ability to serve you, we recognize the importance of maintaining the privacy of your personal information.

The following are principles The Dillett Company, Inc., has established for the gathering and sharing of consumer information:

We do not and will not sell your personal information to anyone.

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards in order to protect your non-public personal information.

We collect and use customer information only to the extent required to conduct our business and to meet the highest quality service standards.

We require any organization that helps us serve our customers to meet our privacy standards.

We exchange customer information with non-affiliated entities only to the extent required or permitted by law, for underwriting, administrative, or risk management purposes, verification, and to detect and prevent fraud.

GATHERING OF INFORMATION

We obtain information about you from your applications, transactions, and other interactions with us. We obtain and use this information only in accordance with applicable law or in response to your request for a contract with us. The information we gather helps us identify who you are, manage our relationship with you, and provide insurance products and services that meet your needs.

SHARING OF INFORMATION

We are dedicated to serving your needs for privacy. We do NOT share your non-public personal information with non-affiliated companies except as permitted or required by law. We restrict access to your non-public personal information to our employees and agents who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We will not reveal your information to any external organization unless we have previously informed you in this or other disclosures or agreements, you have authorized us, or we are required by law to do so.

We will not use or share with non-affiliated companies personally identifiable medical information for any purposes other than the underwriting or administration of your policy or claim, or as disclosed to you when the information is collected, or to which you consent.

MONITORING OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

We will monitor our practices to insure that your privacy is respected.
